SHOWING UP FRAUDS.

The ins and bases charges laid by Germany against American hog products have been shown. The attack on Minister Sargent has been answered conclusively, and its business demonstrated. The German authorities have now been given an answer to crack. Our Consul at Lige, George C. Tanner, represents to the State Department at Washington facts of grave moment, and the German papers, and German commercial agents and authorities, have been so nonplussed that they have begged for time in which to make "fitting replies." Mr. Tanner's charges are incapable of answer. He has taken care to accompany them by the proofs, and they are German proofs, by the way. In brief, they show that Germany engages in the most shameless adulteration of imported food, drink, woven goods and kerogen. For instance, American kerogen comes into Germany of a given grade, plainly marked, and sold for just what it is. Immediately the Germans dilute it and separate it into three grades, so that one gallon of the imported is made to represent three gallons. The instant fault is found with it, the cry is set up that the fraud is all in, he laid to "those rascally Yankees," whom the German adulterators in Germany take especial delight in currying in order to divert attention from their own frauds. To American flour they add plaster of Paris, barbats and potato flour; to American lard they add tallow and horse fat, the latter being cut in large quantities for that special purpose. Every discovery of a fraud is replied to by a charge that the thievish Americans are guilty of the swindle upon the confounding Germans. Mr. Tanner charges that the attempt to run American flour is deliberate and purposeful with a view to killing off its importation, and he believes Germany will accomplish it. He charges that the Germans adulterate their wines, liquors, medicines, mineral waters and sausages. The wools they export to us are largely made up of rags and cast-off cloths, containing the germs of disease very easily.

"The science of dilution," he says, "is carried into everything that is liquid, oil of adulteration into everything that is solid." There is no question whatever that our own manufacturers and our own shopkeepers and dealers do much in the way of dilution and adulteration, but that is a home master, and we can attend to it. German importers, however, can easily protect themselves. They know very well how to apply tests, and they know how to secure genuine goods. It will not do for them to take our pure exports, falsify and reduce them, and then charge the fraud upon them. Americans know exactly how to beat the Germans at that game, and we misjudge the "rascally Yankees" if the ton does not find it out speedily and to the bottom.

ANOTHER BITE AT THE CHERRY.

As long as known that the politicians were determined to have two bites at the legislative cherry. They were not content with one. Democratic Legislature—the excuse must be trumped up for a allied session. It is now to be attempted through the agency of a mass meeting to be held at San Jose, to avoid enmity to the railroads of the State. An unscrupulous and scheming San Francisco sheet that lives upon hatred and cattiness to all it cannot control, applauds the movement. Now the ulterior object of the scheme is not so much to punish railroads by lowering rates to a non-paying basis, as it is to make a joint raid upon the State Treasury and the railroad pocket-book, and to give the Governor, who is, it is feared, not fall in readily with the plan, backing sufficient to induce him to call an extra session of the Legislature. All the loud-mouthed exclamations about railroad outrages and the crushing tyranny of the railroads, is sheer nonsense. The very community where demagogues have commenced to work up the "boom," more than any other in the State, has benefited by railroad building and operation. It is a wealthy and prosperous community, and largely so because of the railroad facilities it enjoys bringing its products to the best markets. It has not suffered, nor does it suffer, from tyranny on the part of anyone. It enjoys as cheap transportation to-day as any community at the East of like population and situation. The truth is, there was never a more silly and groundless attempt made than that now being urged on to compel an arbitrary, hasty and unreasoning reduction of freights and fares. Reductions always come just as commercial needs demand and permit. All attempts herefores made anywhere to enforce arbitrary reductions, and according to the selfish demands of politicians and conventions, have proved dismal and disastrous failures. If the proposed San Jose Convention should demand a reduction of a given percentage, and it should be made, it would be precisely as just and rational for a second convention, having railroad a little more, to demand still another reduction, and so on to the climax of absurdity. The very fact that Railroad Commissions hesitate to make arbitrary and sweeping reductions on lines of transportation should convince the reasonable that the problem is one of too great moment to be disposed of in a single resolution. As the Colusa Sun says: "We know just enough about the question to know that it will require some time, patience and nerve, to settle it so as to do justice to all parties concerned. The Constitution provides that the Commission shall fix rates of fares and freights, and it cannot do this without going into the minutiae of absurdity."

DOMESTIC NEWS.

Nothing New from General Crook.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The War Department has not yet received any information from General Crook. Adjutant-General Drayton, however, has received the following:

"Dear Sirs:—At Paso del Norte, the 25th inst.,

General R. K. Drum, nothing authentic has been heard in regard to General Crook. We have daily news from the Mexican border, but have had no news from the United States.

Very truly yours, R. K. DRAYTON, Adjutant-General.

At 11 o'clock last night the lockout, which has kept 2,000 workmen idle a fortnight. The workmen recede from the lockout, and the strike is now over. The men are now at work again, and the employers have agreed to give them a raise of 10 cents per day. The

NEW YORK, May 27th.—The Transcript prints a long statement from Mrs. Walter Davis, denouncing the jury that she claims was organized to acquit Phil Thompson, and making a strong defense of her husband, charging that he was innocent and in imminent danger with Mrs. Thompson, throwing all the blame on Jessie Buckner, and claiming that the reason her husband took Mrs. Thompson to the road at the San Joaquin River, and his return to the city of Sacramento, was to get her away from him. Mrs. Buckner is dead, and the reason she was released at the time was that she was pregnant. The lockout is over, and the men are back at work again, and the employers have agreed to give them a raise of 10 cents per day. The

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SARASFIELD GUARD PICNIC.—The Standard Guard (Company D) picnic at Beach's Grove, Folsom, was a decided success. The banner Mannequin was covered with canvas, for the occasion with a high railing around it. The steamer Governor Dana was the one used to take the barge down the river. The First Artillery band accompanied, and almost as noisy a band was out in the streets of Folsom, and the guard and all were down the river. The grove was in a splendid condition, and owing to the excessive heat the picnickers showed a disposition to while away the time in the shade of the trees. The day was a glorious one. The band, however, but few entries for prizes, no one appearing to call sufficiently for a prize to make an attempt to win it. The prizes were awarded as follows: Boys—First prize, $10; Second, $5; third, $2. Girls—First prize, $5; second, $2; third, $1. Young men's race—First prize, $10; second, $5; third, $2. Young men's race—First prize, $10; second, $5; third, $2. Men's race over 20 years—First prize, Corporal C. Kanz; second, skipper, Private Mervin; Romulus, skip; Jim and Jim—Ed. Shantz; Second, Skipper—First prize, Osgood; second, Irvin; Lester, At the clay pigeon match there was a bold and interesting contest. The first prize was won by W. Eckhoff (score, 21); second, W. H. Odell; and third, W. C. Adams. The clay pigeon match was a great success, and this for the first time in the history of the club. The day was a glorious one, and the average this year will reach 1,700 or 1,800 a.m., while last year there was but little over 700 a.m. Of the ranches mentioned near Folsom, the 100 and 200-acre have been put in this year. On the Riverdale road there has been considerable.

INCREASE IN THE AVERAGE.

While there are 150 acres above Valencia, in Yolo, where there was but a small patch last year, there is now a large one, and eight prizes were awarded. With W. C. Griff, C. W. Smith and O. Stevens, each making a score of 14. Last season there was considerable fault found with the horses at which the men were mounted. The horses have a very bad effect on the vines, and it is now being considered what can be done to remove them.

The fourth and fifth prizes were divided between Charlie Mack and A. Menke, each with a score of 14. The sixth, seventh, and eighth prizes were awarded to W. C. Griff, C. W. Smith and O. Stevens, each making a score of 14. Last season there was considerable fault found with the horses at which the men were mounted.
